I was placed in charge of the Education Branch of the Secretariat from about the 25th December 1923 to the 14th Feb 1924 during the absence on leave of the asst Secy 2 in the Ed'n Branch viz. Appointments &c. As the work of the Branch included that of the Central Recruiting Board we used to take up most of my time during office hours I had therefore to work overtime every day attending office even on Sundays and holidays
